

Hank Williams Jr., The Nashville Scene

The streets are paved with tourist and the record companies flourish, Lord knows every singer wants But some of them couldn't take it and some good one's didn't make it. That's the way it goes on the Now there's a wino on the corner, he was a well known guitar picker 'til he got burned out by the gas
Now he'll bum you for some whiskey and tell you how it was back in '52 when he played for Hank.
and I'm watching the sun go down this evening and soon it will wake this town that's made of dreams
But before it does a new star will be shining and that's the way it is on the Nashville scene.
From the outside it's a castle, from the inside it's a prison it's easy to live way beyond your means.

and it's a long, long way to the top and even further when you drop and I've been on both ends of the
And I'm watching the sun go down this evening and soon it'll wake this town that's made of dreams, but before it does a new star will be shining and lighting up the old Nashville scene and I'm standing here as the sun goes down this evening and soon it will wake this town that's made but before it does a new star will be shining lighting up the Nashville scene, lighting up the Ole Nashville scene.
