

Hank Williams Jr., Where He's Going I've Already

Well I don't envy him at all when I see him by your side
Cause I know you're making plans to take him on your loveless ride
On his trip through pleasure and he'll love every inch of the way
Right up to the end where he's going with you I've already been
But I would never go back there again
If I could chance the pages in my book of life I would Rewrite the story different make it read the way it should
But I can't erase the mistakes I made I don't have no magic pen
Where he's going with you I've already been but I can never never go back there again
What a fool I was to fall in love with you and try to change your ways
You will love him for awhile you will laugh and you will smile
But when you're through with him he'll pay the price I paid
And sure won't be here through the hurt and the tears
To pick you up at your journeys end
Where he's going with you I've already been and I will never go back there again
Where he's going with you I've already been and I will never go back there again
