

Hank Williams, My Main Trial Is Yet To Come

Sitting alone in my prison cell
Watching the setting sun
My trial on earth is over now

Chorus:

I'm sentenced to die at dawn
But after I die in the electric chair

The judge will give me the 'lectric chair
But that won't worry me

When I face the judge of eternity

Oh mother I'm leavin' you here alone
I've disgraced your name I know
This trial on earth was for my soul

Chorus
