

Hank Williams Sr., Callin' Your Name

I've been up all night and I can't sleep
I've been thinkin' about you and I can't eat

I tried to go outside, but it started to rain and I'm sittin' here in tears callin' your name

Callin' your name O Lord, I need you now
I didn't know how far I was driftin' out

It's been so hard livin' all alone
I need ya this time - Lord, please can ya give me a home

It's been so hard these last few years without you
I've been wild and I didnt have a care
I've caused myself so much sorrow so I'm callin' this time - can I be saved

Callin' your name O Lord, I need you now
I didn't know how far I was driftin' out

It's been so hard livin' all alone
I need ya this time - Lord, please can ya give me a home

I'm calling this time - Lord, please can ya give me a home
