

Hank Williams, We're Getting Closer To The Grave

WE'RE GETTING CLOSER TO THE GRAVE EACH DAY

WRITER HANK WILLIAMS

Oh don't you know that Jesus died to wash your sins away

Please heed His call and in sin don't fall

We're getting closer to the grave each day

They nailed his hands there on the cross

On His head the thorns did lay

Be prepared to go, there's one thing I know

We're getting closer to the grave each day

Sinner man won't you stop now and pray

Leave the road of sin alone

Let Jesus lead you home

We're getting closer to the grave each day
