

Hank Williams, Won't You Sometimes Think Of Me

[C] Though our paths in life have parted
You no [F] longer care for me but when you're [C] happy with another
Won't you [G] sometimes think of [C] me

[C] When the evenin' sun is sinking
[F] down behind the trees and the [C] moon is slowly rising
Won't you [G] sometimes think of [C] me

[C] I'll always keep your picture it [F] means so much to me
And every [C] night I'll pray dear that You'll [G] sometimes think of [C] me

[C] Think of days that are gone dear
[F] days we could recall if [C] you would only try dear
But still [G] you blame me for [C] all

[C] When the evenin' sun is sinking
[F] down behind the trees and the [C] moon is slowly rising
Won't you [G] sometimes think of [C] me

[C] All I can say's I tried dear
But [F] you wouldn't let it be
So if you're [C] ever sad and lonely
Won't you [G] sometimes think of [C] me

[C] When the evenin' sun is sinking
[F] down behind the trees and the [C] moon is slowly rising
Won't you [G] sometimes think of [C] me
