

Hanna Pakarinen, Heart beating steady

What do you want when you call me?
What do you want when you ask me how I feel?
What do you want when you tell me you're sorry?
Are you asking for my forgiveness?
If that's what you are, I ain't making waves for you
Somehow you thought of me as a harmless, little princess
While I was on to your weakness
And grateful when you said we're through
I got my heart beating steady
Heart pounding heavy
Heart beating steady
'Cause one day you'll learn that the hurt is on you
I got my heart beating steady
Heart pounding heavy
Heart getting ready
For soon come a day when it's clean of you
Where did you go when you left me the first time?
Where did you go when you said you're all alone?
Where did you stay when I was calling after you?
Going crazy over you
Making plans to ditch you
I guess you never knew
I got my heart beating steady...
Did you know I wasn't happy?
Did you know that I knew that it would end?
Heart beating steady...
