

Hanna Pakarinen, Maybe It's a Good Thing

We don't talk lost connection
We're moving on in the wrong direction
It seems too late to repatriate
Just too hard to put back together
I think I've reached the end
I'll always be your friend
So maybe it's a good thing
Better in the long run
If I don't lose you
I need to let you go now
Maybe it's a good thing
I'll set you free
And maybe you will realize
We belong together
So maybe it's a good thing
It's so damn hard
To make the words
Leave my mouth
You must be special
We make vows
To make it easy
So here's my plan
To make you need me
I'll say I've reached the end
Always be my friend
So maybe it's a good thing
Better in the long run
If I don't lose you
I need to let you go now
Maybe it's a good thing
I'll set you free
And maybe you will realize
We belong together
So maybe it's a good thing
Maybe it's a good thing
Wohh....Ohh...Ohh
Why does wrong seem right
Yeah...
And I don't know why love
Has brought me this fight
And I just wonder why
So maybe it's a good thing
Better in the long run
If I don't lose you
I need to let you go now
Maybe it's a good thing
I'll set you free
Better in the long run
If I don't lose you
I need to let you go now
A good think for me
A good think for you
Maybe it's a good...
Thing
