

Hanna Pakarinen, Save My Life Tonight

The postbox is filled with unpaid bills
Don't answer the phone, let the doorbell ring
I sleep all day, lay awake at night
I've lost all sense of time

Visions haunting through my mind
My fridge is half empty, afraid of outside
I stare at the wall, feel cold in bed
I've gotta get out of here

Won't you save my life tonight?
Just stay with me and I'll be okay
Won't you just hold on to me?
Please excuse the state I'm in and heal my mind, hold on to me
Won't you save my life
tonight?

Tonight...

Empty where it used to shine
I watch the clock, I'm killing time
It's you I see in my hour of need
Bringing back light to me

Won't you save my life tonight?
Just stay with me and I'll be okay
Won't you just hold on to me?
Please excuse the state I'm in and
heal my mind, hold on to me
Won't you save my life
tonight?

Everything is breaking down on me
I dial your number, I've got to breathe
Everything's locked up, I can't see Come on over
Rescue me, rescue me, rescue me

Won't you save my life tonight?
Just stay with me and I'll be okay
Won't you just hold on to me?
Please excuse the state I'm in and
heal my mind, hold on to me
Won't you save my life
tonight?

Tonight...

Won't you save my life tonight?
Won't you just hold on to me?
