

Hanna Pakarinen, Sorry

The reflection in your eye is revealing what's inside it makes me wonder,
everyday that's passin' by
am i livin in a lie
can you feel it
do you feel it

where do we go
what do we do
you say you sorry
say you sorry
i put my trust
my faith in you
you say your sorry
say your sorry

can you feel it

like a well that's running dry like a devil in disguise should i forget it
i can't watch it fade away like the word from yesterday
can you feel it
do you feel it
