Hanoi Rocks, Mental Beat

The beat is getting stronger I can't take it any longer Every time I try to sleep I wake up to This beat inside of me You can't ignore this beat You have to get up on your dancing feet You will have no time to eat The beat is so much stronger than me, Oh, yes it is I observe and I learn Today I have been reversed And it seems to me now like I'm the Center of the universe hey! look at me! People ask me if I am going insane But I say it's just this missile in my vein It comes on hard, there's no stop no start And it kicks so strong, the kick goes on Over and over 'til you can't belong, It's an endless song One, two, three, it goes on Ooo Mental Beat, Ooo Mental Beat Your hero is a zero And you're just another weirdo It comes on like a bomber, a long distance drummer If you can't hear the beat you must be deaf Hanoi Roxx has got the beat Boy, they never seem to sleep! And the only explanation is that There is no protection Against the Mental Beat So let's go!
