

Hanoi Rocks, Walking With My Angel

All right now, Well ain't no dime, being down
Who would ever try to put me down
When I'm walking, walking with my angel
'Cause every guy I see, Is wishin' that he were me
Now when I'm walking, walking with my angel
When we're rollin' hand in hand, I'm as happy as can be
'Cause she's the prettiest girl in town
And everyone can see she belongs to me
And I feel so proud, It's as good as walking on a cloud
(Now) When I'm walking, walking with my angel
Now when I'm walking, walking with my angel
