

Hanson, Christmas Time

Everything is different
But nothing's changed
Now we're going in circles
It's Christmas again.

Well can't you hear the sleigh bells ring?
All our voices unite
And look up to the heavens
See the stars shining bright

ohh..Everybody needs a little lovin'
Around Christmas time
Somehow you got to know you're gonna be all right
Oh...Do you really remember how it used to be Sitting under the Christmas tree
In your heart you'll find the season
ohh...yeah, oh

We've been blessed by the children
Black, yellow, and white
They believe in the things
We try to deny
Ohh...So throw down your weapons
Don't continue the fight
And let's love one another
On this holy night

Ohh..Everybody needs a little lovin'
Around Christmas time
Somehow you got to know you're gonna be all right
oh oh...Do you really remember how it used to be Sitting under the Christmas tree
In your heart you'll find the season

Oh! Reach down inside
Your heart and see all the love
Oh, in your heart you'll find the reason!

Everybody needs a little lovin'
Around Christmas time
Somehow you got to know you're gonna be all right
Oh! You're gonna be all right!
Oh...Do you really remember how it used to be?
Me loving you and you loving me...
In your heart you'll find the season

Oh! Everybody needs a little lovin'
Around Christmas time, ohhh
Somehow you gotta know you're gonna be all right
Somehow you've got to know it's gonna be all right
Everybody needs a little lovin' around Christmas time
around Christmas time
Somehow you gotta know you're gonna be all right
If you know you're gonna be all right!

Everybody needs a little lovin' around Christmas time
Somehow you gotta know
Yeah-yeah, yeah-yeah, yeah-yeah-yeah... ..
