Hanson, Day Has Come

Well the day has come to where I've never thought of anyone Quite as much as I think of you As the days go by I never wonder why I just know it's true Well the day has come Well the day has come

Well I never would have thought that I Could love someone like I love you And I never would have thought That anyone could love me like you do

The day has come and still I never Ask myself why I love you And as the days go by it seems that I Love you more than I did the day before

Well that day has come Well that day has come
