

Hanson, I've Been Down

(One, two, three)

I've been down, I've been down
I've been down before
I've been down, I've been down
But never this low
I've been down, I've been down
I've been down before
I've been down, I've been down
But never this low

You know that even a strong man falls
And even a wise man has to learn
Yes, it's true that some men have it all
While me and the rest just crash and burn

Yeah

Well, you think you're telling me something
But I've heard it once or twice
You've been taking every turn that's wrong
And I've been taking your advice

Well, I've been down, I've been down
I've been down before
I've been down, I've been down
But never this low
Well, I've been down, I've been down
I've been down before
I've been down, I've been down
But never this low

Well, I know the day will come
When all my worries now are dead and gone
Won't assume that tomorrow you'll find what's gone, yeah
But I'll be right right here holding on

Yeah

Well, you think you're telling me something
But I've heard it once or twice
Well, you've been taking every road that's wrong
And I've been taking your advice

Well, I've been down, I've been down
I've been down before
I've been down, I've been down
But never this low
Well, I've been down, I've been down
I've been down before
I've been down, I've been down
But never this low

Break it down!

I've been down, I've been down
I've been down before
I've been down, I've been down
But never this low
I've been down, I've been down
I've been down before
I've been down, I've been down
But never this low
