

Happy Campers, Bitches Ain't Shit

Life sucks then you die, so sit around and sulk, sit around and cry another stupid girls' got you down again, had another fling and lost another friend why can't I stay interested in you for longer than a day?

I tried commitment, I tried and ended up the victim of other people's lust Put my faith in other people's hands, fell flat on my face won't try that again

Why can't you stay interested in me for longer than a day Longing so much to care, it seems i can't cause I'm caringly impaired
I don't want to hurt myself, mostly I don't want to hurt anybody else

Nowadays it gets so hard to try it's like they say Once bitten, Twice shy

Aw, what the hell, I'll throw the dice again and take it past the point of being only friends

Maybe we'll lose and maybe we'll win, but there's no going back to being only friends
