

Happy Campers, No Direction

Don't know what I'm doin Don't know where I'm goin Don't have a clue and now it's finally showin' Won't somebody give me a hint or 2 tell me what the f**k I'm supposed to do Don't have a compass
Don't have a map Got a diploma still lyin on my back the right track hell, I don't know where it is It's like i didn't study for some big pop quiz
No Direction
So many decisions
I can't decide so many people in whom do you confide? there are no signs to tell you what to do the path you're gonna take well that's just up to you the road less traveled leads to certain death you might succeed but i wouldn't hold my breath so conform to the system work your life away wonder what might have been until your dying day
