

Hard Rain, You'd Start A Fight

Black cat, well I ain't superstitious
Oh lord, tell me heavens above
Under a bad sign, well it ain't nobody's business
Tell me who do you love?

You don't give me no attention
This time, well I've had enough
Even a blind man sure going to see evil woman
Tell me who do you love, I said who do you love?

You'd start a fight in an empty house
And treat me just like a stray dog
You wind me up then you turn me out
And put me off like a bad job

Hard rain, love to see you falling
Wash you, get you out of my blood
Won't be the last time I'm going to end up in trouble
Tell me who do you love, I said who do you love?

You'd start a fight in an empty house
And treat me just like a stray dog
You wind me up then you turn me out
And put me off like a bad job

Don't talk with a cold rejection
Ain't never going to take all night, no
I just want to lose the connection
And I'm going to make you feel all right
Not a thing, not a prize possession
Going down on a one way flight
Tell me who do you love?

You'd start a fight in an empty house
And treat me just like a stray dog
You wind me up then you turn me out
And put me off like a bad job
