

Harem Scarem, Higher

I can feel the bombs are blowing up behind me
Got my head above the water on the rise
And I feel alone although you walk beside me

Still I fear what I'll find
If I hear you say the word goodbye

When all is said and done
You're still the one
Taking me higher
When all is said and done
I still need your love
You're taking me higher

Yeah I'm shedding all the skin that has disguised me
And I'm taking all the wrongs to make them right
Said my prayers and now I put it all behind me

Still I fear what I'll find
If I hear you say the word goodbye

When all is said and done
You're still the one
Taking me higher
When all is said and done
I still need your love
You're taking me higher

Into the light
Giving me energy
Into the light
You're there for me

When all is said and done
You're still the one
Taking me higher
When all is said and done
I still need your love
You're taking me higher
