

Harlan Howard, Maybe The Hurt Will Go Away

If I can hide my tears somehow forget your broken vows
And maybe the hurt will go away
If I can find somebody new I might get over you and maybe the hurt will go away
Now I'm gonna miss your love and kiss but since that's how it is
I'm gonna start my little campaign today
Ain't gonna let love get me down I'm gonna paint the town
And maybe the hurt will go away
[ac.guitar - guitar]
If I can fool everybody else and I might fool myself and maybe the hurt will go away
If I pretend I don't love you someday it might be true
Then maybe the hurt will go away
Now I'm gonna miss your love...
Oh maybe the hurt will go away
