Look at you look at me ha-ha what a laugh
Tied together yet we're worlds apart
Crazily loving you ha-ha what a laugh
What chance have I when you won't give your heart
Look at me look at you standing there
And not one sign of love can I see
Look at you look at me what a laugh
And worst of all I know the laugh's for me
Jealous me loving you ha-ha what a laugh
Where are those sweet I-love-you's I once heard
Everybody thinks you love me ha-ha what a laugh
For you forgot the meaning of the word
Look at me look at you standing there
And not one sign of love do I see
Look at you look at me what a laugh
And worst of all I know the laugh's for me
(Look at you look at me what a laugh)
