

Harley Poe, I'm Coming For You

It happened once, it'll happen again I said, but you promised that you'd be true, oo oo, I didn't think that you were lyin' then,
and a year went by and my oh my it was a lie, then my whole world turned blue, oo oo,
when i caught you doin' it again.

Did you think that you were sneaky, when you went behind my back?
Why didn't you just leave me?
I could've gotten over that,

And I'm on to you,
I know that you've been fooling around, again,
and you know what I'm gonna do?
After I find him I'm gonna kill him, and then I'm comin' for you.

It happened once, it'll happen again I said,
but you promised that you'd be true, oo oo, and I knew that you were lyin' then,
and a year went by and my oh my it was a lie,
then my whole world turned blue, oo oo,
when i caught you doin' it again.

A second time in just 2 years, why do you have to cheat on me?
You tell me that you love me, so why do you commit adultery?

And I'm on to you,
I know that you've been fooling around, again,
and you know what I'm gonna do?
After I find him I'm gonna kill him,
and then I'm comin' for you.

Is he so special to you now, that you won't give him up somehow, just to show me you still love me just a little bit? (refrain)

He won't be special when he's dead, when I come chop off his head, you better give him up 'cause you know that I'll go through with it

He won't be special when he's dead, when I come bash in his head, you better give him up
'cause you know that I'll go through with it

And I'm on to you,
I know that you've been fooling around, again
and you know what I'm gonna do?
After I find him I'm gonna kill him,
and then I'm comin' for you.
