

Harmful, I Remember You

Out of my illusions... straight I would like to thank everyone You laugh the light and I cry the wound
Can't stop to read your lips You've forgotten the word I love you Your kisses now are so blas
You're bored in every way
I remember you? my secret love's no secret anymore
I suffer you don't mind I communicate all the time Until you push me away there's nothing left to sa
There's no need to tell me that we're through You're not the angel I once knew
I wonder why you turn your eyes away
I remember you? my secret love's no secret anymore
I remember you? don't try to tell me who's the one to fool
