

Harvey Danger, This Is The Thrilling Conversation

There is a price tag on everything;
A dying language beat down like a featherweight, staggering.
(Once you've had bad credit, you'll never forget you had it).

Dim innuendos are spoken aloud
Where supermodels are superendowed.
Fashion is the art of brainwashing the proud.

The shocking inclination
The vulgar ostentation
The group inoculation
The sketchy motivation
The holy exaltation
The misappropriation
The underestimation...

This is the thrilling conversation you've been waiting for.

Ears down to the noise floor just to hear the sound.
The adjectives are everywhere, I stand down...

This is the fascist ex-purgation
The people's liberation
The teen emancipation
The tintinnabulation...

This is the thrilling conversation you've been waiting for
This is the thrilling conversation you've been waiting for.
(Disassociate if you can't support it, don't try on the suit if you can't afford it.)
