

Hatebreed, Immortal Enemys

When the conflict never ceases (it's) the enemies are immortal!
Only their names and faces is change,
So our stance must always be held!

Claim my pain, your facade tears away
Another day dies, I'm looking, I'm lasting
A test to bring my strength for.....
Another claim ? a most desolation!

And the conflict was lost forever
So must our struggle for justice!
And I stayed, our faith denied
Is there any wonder where the answer lie?

Enemies never die!
Conflict is unending!
Chaos never ceases!
Where does the solution lie?

Claim my pain, your facade tears away
Another day dies, I'm looking, I'm lasting
A test to bring my strength for.....
Another claim ? a most desolation.

And the conflict was lost forever
So must our struggle for justice!
And I stayed, our faith denied
