

Hatfield & The North, Big Jobs No. 2 (By Poo And

Took a trip through the night just to get here, tried being myself recently; but I try my best to make it sound nice and hope that the music turns you on like it's turning on me should be a laugh certainly.

Now through the medium of the Manor Mobile, I would like to sing this song in the Hatfield style.
Thank all the mothers who made cups of tea if they hadn't cared for us, we wouldn't be here to sing our songs and entertain.
Plug us in and turn on the mains!

We have to leave here tonight, I hope that it will sound all right but we're trying hard to make it sound nice and hope that the music turns you on while you're drinking your tea do have a laugh certainly!
