

Hawksley Workman, Let's Make Some Soup

(almost a full moon)

let's make some soup 'cause the weather is turning cold let's stir it together till we are both grey and old let's stir it together till it tells us stories of its own

pumpkin and parsnip carrots and turkey bones bay leaf and pepper potato and garlic cloves you stir a moment while i put more wood in the stove

the moon's almost full and the candles are burning low it's almost midnight and you wouldn't even know the light gets reflected on freshly fallen snow
let's make some soup 'cause the weather is turning cold

we'll make enough to feed everyone we know we'll make enough to feed everyone we don't no one is different everyone's alone

let's make some soup because everyone feels the cold let's make some soup 'cause the weather is turning cold
