Hawkwind, Looking In The Future

Lives of great men all remind us we may make our lives sublime
And so departing leave behind us
Footprints in the sands of time
And with the writing I will show you Looking in the days beyond recall
As I lecture back with the spirits of the other time

I'm living in the future I'm looking in the future I'm living in the future

Not a sound was heard No call came from the bird Only the carpet of green From towering trees was seen Where have they all gone? Why was there no song?

I'm living in the future Looking at the past
