

Hawthorne Heights, Come Back Home (Reprised)

Come back home, you're all alone
Everyone is waiting for
The words to say to make you stay
To keep you in their arms

Hold still so I can feel
The words that hurt, the hit that kills
The latest fight that lasts all night
Turn off the lights and leave right now

I know, I know
I'm too slow to catch you here
I know, that she knows
She's running far, far from me

Come back home, pick up the phone
Or just call my name out loud
So I can hear so loud and clear
Our time is running, running out

I know, I know
I'm too slow to catch you here
I know, that she knows
She's running far, far from me

Slow down, oh no
So I can catch you now
Slow down, oh no
So we can work this out

I'm cold and tired, let's start a fire
And then we'll fall asleep
You and me, ohh, you and me

I'm cold and tired, let's start a fire
And then we'll fall asleep
You and me, ohh, you and me

Forget what you're not
Not what you learned
I know where you are
I know you got burned
I know you got burned

I know, I know
I'm too slow to catch you here
I know, that she knows
She's running far, far from me

Slow down, oh no
So I can catch you now
Slow down, oh no
So we can work this out

I know it seems like we're never coming back
I know it feels like we're never coming back
You tried your best and you knew it wouldn't last
I know it feels like we're never coming back

I know it seems like we're never coming back
I know it feels like we're never coming back
You tried your best and you knew it wouldn't last
I know it feels like we're never coming back

I know it seems like we're never coming back
I know it feels like we're never coming back
You tried your best and you knew it wouldn't last
I know it feels like we're never coming back
