

Hawthorne Heights, Do You Have A Map Because

And if tomorrow should be the last day I could ever tell you
I was in love with your smile, In love with your eyes.
Tomorrow will be a-okay, just to say I loved you way too much.
I should have said anything instead of making no sense at all...
Why was I chasing falling stars instead of you?
Why was I breaking my own heart instead of embracing yours?

Tomorrow will be a-okay, just to say I loved you way too much.
I should have said anything. . .
anything

Everything is broken, put it back together.
Everything just falls apart
Everything is broken... Yeah Everything, Everything.

Why was I chasing falling stars instead of you?
Why was I breaking my own heart instead of embracing yours?

Just remember, to save me one last dance.
And please try to close your eyes.

Just remember, to save me one last dance.
And please try to close your... eyes.
