

Hay & Stone, Give Me The Power Back

Don't know what they mean, cause i feel like i'm dancing
Let it be an empty room and all alone
And that is all that i need, cause it's all that i got I got a feeling that you might be smiling on Have i been here before? Well, if i do, don t ever wanna lose what i Found with you
Have i been here before? I beg and plead cause you know, you make The wind move
oh-oh oh-oh
It's like the freedom rings this air
Give me the power back, would you
Give me the power back
Give me the power back that i need to make my day
It was yesterday's news that made me recall Loathing the life, sleeping on concrete
Listen to your vinyls in a single bedroom flat
And the street below with the noises of friday night...
Sure we've been here before, but all you knew, all you knew
It got lost under the midway
Sure we ve been here before, but all worth fighting for is now hiding Or gone, hiding on
oh-oh oh-oh
It's like a beehive in my head
Give me the power back, would you
Give me the power back
Give me the power back that i need to make my day.
