

Hay & Stone, Prayer Song

Love is vibration of heart
Love is vibration of heart
Sound is vibration of air, the sacred blow
In the dream of the sound begins the song
I wanna be one with the sound
I wanna walk as one with the wavemaker, wanna
Be one with the sound
And i ask you, and i ask you to come along
Music speaks the language of vibrations, would you
Listen to the language of vibrations
Our heart hears the call of vibrations beyond
I wanna be one with the sound
I wanna walk as one with the wavemaker, wanna
Be one with the sound
And i ask you, and i ask you to come along
