

Hayley Westenra, The Peace Song

Music: James Hall

Lyrics: James Hall/Carly Binding/Glen Cleaver

If I could change anything
Then love would heal everything.

Though I may be just one voice, I pray
That peace inherits the world
And joy and hope are unfurled
Though I may be young I see
If only we had faith in love
We could be free, we could be free.

Though I see through one child's eyes
I look beyond the world's disguise
Though I may be young I see
If only we had faith in love
