

Hazel O'Connor, Those Eyes

Hazel O'Connor - A. Karner

There have been eyes, have mystified me, have blinded me, those eyes and there have been arms, have held me tight all through some crazy nights, those arms

Nobody was holding me the way that you do nobody could get to me the way that you have been gotten through

It's those eyes, I can't get them out of my mind
it's your eyes, and they're mine

I just wanna tell you, I'm in love with your eyes

At times I love you, you've been my best friend I hate when you pretend to me, we're enemies at times did I tell you, I need you, it's like the air that I breathe, and I believe in you, I believe

It's those eyes, I can't get them out of my mind
it's your eyes, and they're mine

I just wanna tell you, I'm in love with your eyes
