

Hazen Street, All That

I believed
believed in you
The things you said
said not to do
You made the rules
you always broke behind the scenes
its all a joke
well i believed
believed in you
ive come to realize the sad truth
youre not the person you claim to be youre not sincere to say the least
i wish i could tell the world
All That
That you say
All That
That you preach
All That
What you sing
Doesnt Mean, Mean Anything(X2) Ive always been been myself
never tried to be someone else stayed true
respected you
when times were tough
i saw the truth
look up to no one except yourself
thats what ive learned from everyone else
cause what i see
when i look at you
is disbelief
thats the honest truth
i wish i could could tell the world
All That
That you say
All That
That you preach
All That
What you sing
Doesnt Mean, Mean Anything
I believed in you(I believed in you) Now i believe in me(now i believe in me)
I wish i could tell the world
All that
All That
That you say
All That
All That
Doesnt Mean, Mean Anything(X4)
