

Head Automatica, Mondo Cannibal

Look closely every moment every movement that she makes
Is what the angels do, the angels do
I can see her crossing her perfection with deception
Like the angels do, the angels do

I, see it in her eyes, soon enough i'll lie, by myself
And I, see it in her eyes, soon enough i'll lie, by myself

And I fell in love in hell
I fell in love in hell
I fell in love in hell
And it is simply so distressing
I fell in love in hell
I fell in love in hell
I fell in love in hell
And it is simply so distressing

Slowly I surrender to the serpent who's agenda is What the devils do, the devils do
Merely with her smile she begins to set the fire
Like the devils do, the devils do

I, see it in her eyes, soon enough i'll lie, by myself
And I, see it in her eyes, soon enough i'll lie, by myself

And I fell in love in hell
I fell in love in hell
I fell in love in hell
And it is simply so distressing
I fell in love in hell
I fell in love in hell
I fell in love in hell
And it is simply so distressing

Look closely every moment every movement that she makes
Is what the angels do, the angels do
I can see her crossing her perfection with deception
Like the angels do, the angels do

I, see it in her eyes, soon enough i'll lie, by myself
And I, see it in her eyes, soon enough i'll lie, by myself

And I fell in love in hell
I fell in love in hell
I fell in love in hell
And it is simply so distressing
I fell in love in hell
I fell in love in hell
I fell in love in hell
And it is simply so distressing

I fell in love in hell
I fell in love in hell
I fell in love in hell
And it is simply so distressing
I fell in love in hell
And I fell in love in hell
I fell in love in hell
And it is simply so distressing yeah
