

Head East, Fight For Your Life

You've got to find your own way
Before it finds you (I can see them)
They're just waitin' out there
To drag you down too (with them)
Show a moment of doubt
And they'll let you know (you bet'cha)
They'll take you out for a ride
But won't let you go (no nooo)

You got to fight for your life
It's the only thing you've got
To hold on to just as strong
When you fight for life (ohh)

Tell them all what you think
You might be surprised (to find out)
You'll lose some fair weather friends
But open some eyes (to you)
It's not that they don't care
They're just afraid like you (oh oh)
Give them half a chance
They'll learn to think too (oh nooo)

You got to fight for your life
It's the only thing
You've got worth the loss
It will cost (oh oh)

To fight for your life
It's the only thing you've got
To hold on to just as strong
When you fight for life (ohh)

Oh, you're quite sure, you're not sure
How all the pieces fit together
But first fix up yourself
Now you're ready to quit, pull together, oh oh

Fight for your life
It's the only thing
You've got worth the loss
It will cost, oh oh

To fight for your life
It's the only thing you've got
To hold on to just as strong
When you fight for life

You're quite sure, you're not sure
How all the pieces fit together
But first fix up yourself
Now you're ready to quit, pull together, ah hoo

Fight for your life
It's the only thing
You've got worth the loss
It will cost, oh oh

To fight for your life
It's the only thing you've got
To hold on to just as strong
Win the fight, you fight for life
Fight for your life
You know you got to fight

For your life
Fight for your life
Oohh
