

Head East, Love Me Now

Yahoo

Hurry up baby, I gotta catch a plane
Hey oh, no no no

I see my woman about once a week
But I call her every day
Each time when she holds me tight
There's only one thing I can say

You better love me now
Because I'll be gone tomorrow
You better love me now
Because I'll be down the road

Ha ha ha ooohh

When I flew into town about half past four
That's when the phone began to ring
All the girls started callin' then I kept on stallin'
All I wanted was just your sweet thang

Better love me now
Cause I'll be gone tomorrow
You better love me now
Cause I'll be down the road

Love me now
Because I'll be gone tomorrow
You better stop me now
Because I'll be down the road, uh

You know we go til the truck stops every night
Then we walk out on the stage
So when the crazy thing is over
We're rollin' in clover
Then we're off on another round, hey

You better love me now
Cause I'll be gone tomorrow
You better love me now
Cause I'll be down the road

Here it goes, ha ha hoo
