

Headcharger, The Other Side Of The Coin

I'm an entertainer
To people I sell dreams
On their faces I put smiles
My job : to make people happy
Never done it for fame nor for money
For the people I'm working
There's no greater feeling
The love they're all fucking giving me
Means so much to me
You're the only reason that makes me wanna go on.
Stupid kids too poor to buy my records
Might ruin my life's work
Gonna strike back, my honour's at stake
Don't give a fuck about your new tech'
Your problems and reality
You have to buy my stuff, remember?
You're just my fucking customers
You need me more than I need you
Don't you dare forget that you do
YOU WANNA PLAY WITH ME
LET ME SHOW WHO I CAN REALLY BE
