

Headnoise, Organ of Anger

I want to ask you but I don't wanna know
Your anger compulsion, your hate has got to go
Little children throw a fit while other wanna pout
Maybe life is more complex than what your anger's all about

Anger rising
Contention thriving
Soul is grinding

Feeling the injustice, not knowing what to do
Living in what ought to be, than living what is true
Start facing the suffering, scream into the sea
Being at peace with what was not, and never shall it be

I'm not a victim
I'm not a slave
Leaving the flesh behind
It's time to disengage

Sharp as razors Christ reveals
Contention for humanity
My inner anger, raging pain
Results in soul insanity
Confess my sin
Repent, believe
Contention for humanity
My inner anger, raging pain
Results in soul insanity

It was for freedom that Christ has set us free
Disintegrating darkness, redemptive suffering
Life is a walk of faith into the world unseen
Liberty descending till I can finally see
