

Headplate, Fed Up

i had enough of this place
i just want some silence
there's too much noise in my head
i need to end this now

i wonder why you act this way something is wrong but you won't say what you are keeping from me i need to know, can't you see i want to go inside your mind so i can see what you're hiding behind you lock me out i don't know why i know you think i'll say goodbye

there is nothing more to do
there is nothing more to see

call me up, whisper the words tell me the colour of your dress lay down on the bed touch yourself
my mind is wondering why the fuck i'm doing this to myself am i sick or twisted do i like this

take me for a ride in your mind show me what you got inside
