

Headstone Epitaph, Belovers of Fidelity

(Martin: the basic riff was picked up by Tim with the idea) (of a subtle electronic sound a Tribute to technique) (which is fascinating and scary.)

(vers:)

we have electronic toys and electronic pain
I hear a voice deep inside my brain I hear you talkin' loud and clearly "every step you're walking" it said to me
but in the end
I wonder why
it's comin' back

(ref:)

we are belovers of fidelity always forever on and on

(vers:)

I see a sign before my eyes a sign that says: buy me hear the awful cries hear what will be
I see a sign that says: buy me

(ref:)

who knows if that is our fate maybe our fate to overdo fidelity...?

(vers:)

don't care
care about ambition
this is your aim
this is your mission
