

Headstone Epitaph, Ready to Go

(Martin: This song just arose very spontaneously in the) (rehearsal room while we were preparing for studio) (cause we needed another headbanger song.)

(vers:)

oh yeah we are the hopeless generation and so i wonder there's no revelation you live in the past alright

(ref:)

to the future
we are ready to go on i know
to the limit ready to go on and on and on

(vers:)

take care of the good friends maybe they are not like you and see all the good things go on to face the truth
you live in the past alright
