

Headstones, Smile And Wave

Billy's got a PhD and Sara she's a teacher
They love to rock'n'roll and blow their brains out on the weekend
Together they have built a world a lot of it is real
We are here to ease them through the parts they can't conceal
I smile & wave

Now they're swearing up and down they're coming off so clean
Surely they will fall to their doom
Another inch closer, closer to the railing
And nobody here is ever fooled
I smile & wave

A lot of rain and fancy coffees best-suited couple I know
The spent everything that they've ever harnessed
Now tell me how is your happy home
I smile & wave
