

Hear'Say, Cry-Kym Marsh

I would like to say that I never ment to make you cry,
I think about you every day no matter what your friends might say.
Every-body knows my name even though im still the same,
I just would like to say that I never ever ment to make you cry.
I would like to know why there are clouds in the sky every time i fall in love,
And I would like to know why im sitting here on my own.
I would like to know why when I find a nice guy some-one i can lean upon,
I mess it all up and then i wonder why im all alone.
Tell me if you that Im talking way too much,
And tell me if you'd like to stay in touch.
I would like to say that I never ment to make you cry,
I think about you every day no matter what your friends might say.
Every-body knows my name even though im still the same,
I just would like to say that I never ever ment to make you cry.
Sitting on the sofa letting life go by thinking about the early days,
Thinking about the times when i hurt you with my crazy ways.
All i want to do is look around for you, Yeah
Driving to the break of dawn tracking out, cordoning, pleading untill your coming home.
Tell me if you that I've been a bit too much,
And tell me if you'd like to stay in touch.
I would like to say that I never ment to make you cry,
I think about you every day no matter what your friends might say.
Every-body knows my name even though im still the same,
I just would like to say that I never ever ment to make you Cry Cry Cry.
I didnt meen to be so cruel,
I didnt meen to let you down,
So im sorry for the rain on your parade,
And all the pain you lost the game because of me.
I would like to say that I never ment to make you cry,
I think about you every day no matter what your friends might say.
Every-body knows my name even though im still the same,
I just would like to say that I never ever ment to make,
I never ever ment to make you cry.
