

Heart, How Beautiful

Winter in the city, the year is running dry
New Year's resolutions so perfect in the mind
Gon' lose this blue addiction of mine

Me, I work long hours, first to come and last to go
I walk by Christmas windows full of things I'll never own
Things I cannot give you, my fortune's set in stone

How beautiful the falling snow, it hushes on the world
And heals the melancholy heart, how beautiful, how beautiful
A candle in the window, it dances and it swirls
How beautiful the snow tonight, how beautiful the world
How beautiful

For some the table's laid and others are denied
Makes my love run deeper when I see how hard you tried
And just like you, the snow falls silent in the night

How beautiful the falling snow, it hushes on the world
And heals the melancholy heart, how beautiful
How beautiful a candle in the window, it dances and it swirls
How beautiful the snow tonight, how beautiful the world

Beautiful
How beautiful

How beautiful, beautiful
How beautiful, beautiful
How beautiful, beautiful

How beautiful
How beautiful, beautiful
How beautiful, beautiful
Beautiful

How beautiful, how beautiful
Beautiful, beautiful
How beautiful, beautiful
