

Heart Restless, Just In Time

Such a sad story
Broken down alone
Broken down to my last dime
No one I could turn to Nowhere left to run to
I was almost out of time

You were the only one that ever caught my eye
You reached out and took my hand
And suddenly, I came alive

Oh, girl, you've found me just in time
And I still can't believe you're mine
Don't care that I'm a bit delirious
I swear I'm gonna be just fine
You saved me at the stroke of midnight
Girl, you've found me just in time

It's only fair to warn ya
I'm so crazy for ya
Think I'm gonna lose control
Cause every time I'm near ya
Something in me breaks free
Makes me want to rock and roll

And do you know I will never ever let you get away
Now that we are together I intend to find
The way to make you stay

Oh, girl, you've found me just in time
And I still can't believe you're mine
Don't care that I'm a bit delirious
I swear I'm gonna be just fine
You saved me at the stroke of midnight
Girl, you've found me just in time

Imagine a world where there is never any pain
That's what you are for me
You give me what I'm looking for
You're all I want and so much more

Oh, girl, you've found me just in time
And I still can't believe you're mine
Don't care that I'm a bit delirious
I swear I'm gonna be just fine
You saved me at the stroke of midnight
Girl, you've found me just in time

Who cares if I'm a bit too serious
I know we're gonna be just fine
You saved me at the stroke of midnight
Girl, you've found me just in time

Oh, girl, you've found me just in time...
Oh, girl, you've found me just in time...
Oh, girl, you've found me just in time...
