

Heartless Bastards, Be So Happy

I could be so happy
if I just quit being sad
I could be so happy
If I just quit being a drag
I could be so sweet
if I just quit being sour
I could do all these things
Oh, I have the power

I'm gonna see what tomorrow brings
I'm gonna make it to the midnight train
I'm gonna see what tomorrow brings
I'm gonna take it to the world outside

So I took off running
I ran over the hills
My odyssey through concrete and steel
Gonna keep on going
I don't wanna stand still
Gonna keep on going
I don't wanna stand still

I'm gonna see what tomorrow brings
I'm gonna make it to the midnight train
I'm gonna see what tomorrow brings
I'm gonna make it to the midnight train
