

Hearts Under Fire, Drake's Way

These words go out to you:

Your candle stays alight & your honour burns out bright.

These chords go out to you:

Through the wind I hear your name & every footstep that remains.

Wish I had given you a hand to hold on to, arms to fall into.

I hope they gave you wings,

So you become the angel you deserve to be.

& I'll hold your memory,

Nothing will take your smile away from me.

These words go out to you:

I wish you realised what you had - it didn't have to be so bad.

This song goes out to you:

I'll hold your memory, I'll keep your smile with me.

I hope they gave you wings,

So you become the angel you deserve to be.

& I'll hold your memory,

Nothing will take your smile away from me.
