

HEARTSTEEL, PARANOIA (ft. BAEKHYUN, tobi)

two sides to a story but they never tell my side never been the kinda guy to stay inside the guidelines i know i'm the bad guy, i don't gotta ask why if you try to step to me, it'll be the last time i got dirt on my name, 6 feet in the ground i got people in my past try bringing me down say i'm losing my mind, i don't wanna be found grew up in the shadow but i know they watching me now paranoia, on-the-go, i'm moving silent pull up on ya, i got trouble right behind me bite the bullet, suit and tie the silver lining

...i'ma show you how to crash a party

every time you pop off they hoping that you fall hard they praying for the death of a rockstar everybody hating ever since you got more
they praying for the death of a rockstar

ooh, they love it when you lost boy now the low life at the top floor
they praying for the death of a rockstar

they talk about me i forget to listen at least i get the recognition heavyweight, i pull up on you with the repetition you in the pit, it's not no exhibition (ding ding ding) oh they big mad, i'm the big boss talk a big game, take a big loss growing up i was the problem that they didn't solve i'm the piece that wouldn't fit inside the jigsaw i got a lotta punch lines and a quick jab i'm running straight through, i don't gotta zigzag i got a heavy heart, it's hard to lift that from the cradle to the grave, never changed, make em dig that

everybody hating ever since you got more

they praying for the death of a rockstar

they wanna kiss me long good night with a rose hoping that the Eiffel falls of course you don't understand the life we chose on life support, life goes... i need my silence, my privacy so i can heal and even rockstars got feelings that they feel in reality this just repeats like a drill, always.

everybody hating ever since you got more
they praying for the death of a rockstar

oooh, they love it when you lost boy now the low life at the top floor
they praying for the death of a rockstar

pop off
they hoping that you fall hard
